Editor's Message

Another year is winding down. I hope you will be able to get your Falcon out a few more times before the snow and salt show up on the roads. There are several FCA Regional meets on the schedule in 2019. I hope you can make it to one of these Regional meets. Don't forget to send your KCFCA dues to our Treasurer. If you were a new KCFCA member in 2018 there is no need to send dues. On a personal note, check out the picture below. My daughter gave me a gift to spend some time with a different kind of Falcon. # Boyertown Museum Tour

Saturday, Sept. 29th

The Boyertown museum is a hidden PA treasure. Eight people from the Keystone Chapter went to the museum. Frank & Ginny Servas, Jeff & Renee Wied, Paul & Chrissie Leonetti (from NJ) and Bruce & Pam Wolfe. We didn't expect a personal tour guide but that is what we got. Almost all the vehicles in the museum were made in Pennsylvania. After the museum tour we headed to the Jukebox Café for a great lunch. Then we worked off some calories at the Wilcox Farm Corn Maze. We finished the day at the farm store for some hand dipped ice cream. A B I G T H A N K S goes out to Jeff & Renee Wied for organizing the Saturday getaway for the KCFCA members. It was a special day to spend with some "Falcon Friends".

LB Smith 2018

The weather in the morning was a little "IFY" on Saturday October 20th. It held down the attendance of the 18th Annual Ford Show in Lemoyne, PA (just a little bit). As the day went on the skies brightened and the Fords started rolling in. We ended up with a little over 100 Fords at the show. Previous years we had up to 140 Fords at the show. As usual, LB Smith was prepared for the show with live music, food and lots of Fords. It was a nice day to end the Keystone Chapter year. A thanks goes out to Andy Brown & Jeff Wied for helping to guide everyone into a parking space. Also a REAL BIG THANKS goes out to LB Smith Ford for their $250 donation to the Keystone Chapter. FCA Members in attendance were Andy Brown, Jeff Weid, Dustin Varvel, Dave Davis, Bruce & Joan Kichline, new KCFA member Kris Kollar, Elvin & Henrietta Green, Glenn & Sandy Hoff, Jim Decker, Pat & Dianne Varricchio and Bruce & Pam Wolfe (Hope I Got Everyone).
